

UnitingWorld Relief and Development

Development Education Officer

UnitingWorld is committed to engaging Australian communities within the Uniting Church in our development programs and with broader development issues including poverty reduction, development effectiveness and the Millennium Development Goals.

We are looking for an effective team member to contribute to a growing relief and development agency with extensive partnerships through the Pacific, Asia and Africa.

UnitingWorld is an agency of the National Assembly of the Uniting Church in Australia (UCA). Through its Relief and Development unit (formerly Uniting Church Overseas Aid), UnitingWorld is responsible for the overseas emergency relief and community development activities of the UCA. We have full AusAID accreditation and we are a signatory to the Australian Council For International Development (ACFID) Code of Conduct.

Based in Sydney, the successful applicant will:

- Engage Australian church communities within the Uniting Church in Australia in:
 - UnitingWorld Relief and Development programs
 - Development issues including poverty reduction, development effectiveness and the Millennium Development Goals
- Produce development education resources
- Be responsible for relating to overseas partner organisations and project staff to facilitate the engagement of Uniting Church communities
- Be responsible for the effective facilitation and management of relationships between Australian church communities, UnitingWorld and our overseas partners.

The successful candidate will have:

- Ability to exercise strong written and verbal communication in a variety of contexts including Uniting Church schools, congregations, youth and fellowship groups
- Ability to produce development education resources
- Cross-cultural sensitivity
- Excellent interpersonal, organisational and time management skills
- Ability to contribute as part of a team
- Ability to work in harmony with the ethos and practice of the Uniting Church in Australia
